History Henry VIII Man And Monarch

Henry VIII is the world's most famous king, edging out Louis XIV and King Arthur, who may not have lived at all. He is the king we love to hate, an excessive man in every way- so fat (300 pounds) so cruel, so vicious, so disloyal to everyone but himself.

Think "Henry VIII" and a swollen, cantankerous tyrant comes to mind.

This is the cartoon Henry of legend, a Henry who doesn't do the real king justice. He was, in fact, one of the most cultured and sophisticated monarchs ever to sit on the throne. His enthusiastic patronage of the arts in England, and serious

Henry VIII is famously depicted as a stout, corpulent figure.

However, while this appears to be the most
