Eckankar is a new religious movement founded by Paul Twitchell in 1965. It is a non-profit religious group with members in over one hundred countries. The spiritual home is the Temple of Eck in Chanhassen, Minnesota. Eckankar is not affiliated with any other religious group. The movement teaches simple spiritual exercises, such as singing "Hu", called "a love song to God", to experience the Light and Sound of God and recognize the presence of the Holy Spirit.

Paul Twitchell gave about 60-70 talks from 1967 – 1971. Many of these talks have great wisdom in them, and are as relevant today as they were then. Paul brought out ideas that were foreign to the public, that are now commonplace today. He was a fore-runner for sure. We feel that the spoken words of Paul Twtichell are as important to his legacy as his written works, which includes over 35 books.

The Key to ECKANKAR by Paul Twitchell

Kirpal Singh had gathered it from other groups, Paul had taken it and built upon it from many different areas, and he then moved it more than a step further. More than just identifying the mysterious force—which he later called the ECK—that works through all the God worlds, Paul said, "I also know how to begin working with It."
