The near death experience the author recounts in Return from Tomorrow corresponds with the messages behind The Tibetan Book of the Dead, The Egyptian Book of the Dead, the Mystery religions of ancient Greece and Egypt, and countless other near death experiences documented since earliest times.

Return from Tomorrow by George G. Ritchie

Return from Tomorrow has been translated into nine languages. Ritchie's story was the first contact Dr. Raymond Moody, PhD had with NDEs, during his post-graduate studies and residency in Psychiatry at the University of Virginia. This led Moody to investigate over 150 cases of NDEs in his book Life After Life and two other books that followed.

Return from Tomorrow is the most detailed near-death experience I have ever read. The book documents a number of "realms" where souls reside--from the most heavenly to the most hellish. George said to me in an interview, "If a soul resides in one of the darker realms, God did not put them there: they put themselves there by their own 'stinkin' thinkin'!" He was very adamant in the book that ...
