Many define setting in literature as both the location and time, or the where and when, of a narrative.
Settings can play a crucial role in a work and are often central to the plot.
It is helpful for students to map them out to avoid confusion about what is taking place.

Setting, Character, Plot ...

Setting: A story's setting refers not only to the physical location, but also the time the action takes place. It is the where and the when of a story..

Character: Depending on the nature of the story, characters are most often people or animals. Writers use characters to perform the actions and speak the dialogue of a story. They move a story's plot forward.
