Wilde About The Girl was written with perfect pace and had me gripped from start to end. It's funny, relate-able and addresses some very important subjects in terms of friendship, jealousy, single parent-hood, trust and grief. Louise has adopted her own writing style and I feel is now flourishing as a writer and I can't wait to see more from her.

Wilde About the Girl is funny, sweet, honest and full of love. Every page is packed with hard-earned wisdom , joy and truth , I loved - truly loved - it. Louise's characters are so real, I felt as though I was sat at the kitchen table, enjoying a mug of (spiked) hot chocolate with Robin, Lacey and Auntie Kath, laughing and crying along with them -- Lindsey Kelk
